Hobby Travelling, reading, writing, listening music, watching movies, team sports, yoga.

Objective Doing something good for human being and others is my primary goal. Using software technology for achieving a solution of particular problem is my favorite thing to do. Perfect time management and right way of using different tools for developing software or something new that’s makes me happier. Collaborating with team and working with open-source products feel comfort to me, but I enjoy breaking the barrier of comfort zone.
